

Contents

I. History and Politics of Mind-Altering Drugs	1
1 Prohibition: An Historical Precedent	3
Alcohol Manufacture and Consumption	9
Health Effects	10
Crime and Corruption	11
2 The Lure of Mind-Altering Substances	15
Poppy and Opium through the Ages	16
Antiquity	16
The Ancient Greeks	17
The Muslims	18
India and China	20
Drugs in the 21st Century	23
Worldwide Drug Consumption	23
Trends in Global Drug Consumption	25
Trends in U.S. Drug Consumption	27
3 The Politics of Drug Legislation	39
A Convoluted American Political Saga	39
Global Drug Control: International Conventions	58
II. Medical Aspects of Mind-Altering Drugs	67
4 Current Theories of Addiction	69
The Disease (Victim) Model	70
The Behavioral (Choice) Model	77
5 Pain Control: Narcotics and the DEA	83
The Specter of the DEA	83
DEA's Infringement on Standard of Care	98
6 Painkillers	105
Narcotics (Opioids)	108
Mechanisms of Action	109
Efficacy	110
General Principals of Administration	113
Side Effects	114
Nonopioids	119
Mechanisms of Action	119
Efficacy	121
General Principals of Administration	121
Side Effects	122
III. Geopolitics: Casualties of the Drug War	127
7 Colombia	129
From "La Violencia" to Self-Defense Armies	130
Guerrilla and Counter-Guerrilla Armies: Origins and Evolution	132
Fuerzas Armadas Revolucionarias de Colombia (FARC)	133
Ejército de Liberación Nacional (ELN)	146
Autodefensas Unidas de Colombia (AUC) or Paramilitares	151
8 Afghanistan	165
The Early Days: Prying by the British Empire	166
Events Leading to the Soviet Invasion	168
The Soviet-Afghan War (1979–1989)	169
The Aftermath of the Soviet-Afghan War	172
The Rise and Fall of the Taliban	174
National and International Implications	174
Opium Production and the Taliban	179

IV. Reforming Drug Policy	185
9 Reform Proposals	187
Framing the Discussion	187
Illustrative Reform Proposals and Positions	189
The RAND Corporation Proposal	189
The Senlis Council Proposal	190
The Cato Institute's Stance	193
10 A Rational, Evidence-Driven Drug Policy	195
Conclusions	201
References	207
Index	231

–